Places on the November-December course are discounted by 15%.

Your comfort:

Accommodation is offered as single occupancy of beautiful rooms with comfortable beds, central heating, air-conditioning and private en suite bathroom.

Some rooms also have a balcony with inspiring views of the surrounding mountains and countryside.

There is a communal guest kitchen for preparing snacks between mealtimes and classes and there are areas for sitting and for dining – both inside and outside.

Your training will take place in the shala and when possible, outside in the sunshine.

Your nutrition:

All meals are plant-based and are freshly prepared with love by our fantastic chefs, using organic whole-foods and organic local produce.

Spring water, organic coffee and a selection of organic teas, fruits and snacks are also included and available to you throughout your stay.
